From the Director

The ground has been white for the past two months, but things are hot on campus. We are gearing up for Celebration in April (hopefully the snow will be gone by then). Register here. And, check out our newly launched Cornell Startup List at www.cornellstartuplist.com. Enter your startup, browse the list, be part of the Cornell startup community. And most importantly, celebrate the community and spread the word! See you at Celebration.

Zach Shulman ’87, JD ’90
Director, Entrepreneurship@Cornell

Register now for Celebration 2014
We’ve confirmed Jeff Boyd, chairman and former CEO of Priceline as a featured speaker, panels will tackle issues like crowd-funding, values-based decision-making and women in hospitality and there will be plenty of time to connect with other entrepreneurial Cornellians. Sign up now for Celebration 2014, April 10-11!! The dinner always sells out early - save your seat!!

Social Eship Ted Talks now online
The Center for Transformative action hosted a TedX event in the fall focused on social entrepreneurship. If you missed it, the videos are now featured at these links: YouTube, CornellCast, and CTA also has them on their website.

Time to line up a summer Internship
Spring break is right around the corner and students will be scheduling interviews and making plans for their summer internships. Don't miss out! Both students and companies can fill out our online application and we'll help you find a perfect match.

Cornell Venture Challenge still open
Companies have until March 1 to submit their plans for the Cornell Venture Challenge, which provides a way for burgeoning entrepreneurial ideas/teams to gain experience, exposure, and financing to help launch successful ventures. Click here for more information.

Cornell launches Green Revolving Fund
Facilities Services, the Center for Sustainable Global Enterprise at Johnson, the administrative team and dozens of students and alumni have collaborated to develop the Green Revolving Fund, a program to help university programs and departments adopt energy efficient and sustainable strategies and changes. Click here for more information.

Four Seasons visits SHA
The Pillsbury Institute will host Chris Hunsberger from Four Seasons Hotel & Resorts and Monica Digilio from Montage Hotels and Resorts at 4:30 p.m. on Feb. 26 for one of its "Meet the Benefactor Pizza Socials", where Pillsbury Board Members visit campus to share their knowledge and provide a brief discussion regarding their careers in an informal atmosphere. Pizza will be served. The event is open to all students and will take place in 289 Statler Hall. RSVP to klc43@cornell.edu.

New entrepreneurship professor at Dyson
The Charles H. Dyson School welcomes Dr. Michael Roach, who has been selected as the J. Thomas and Nancy W. Clark Professorship of Entrepreneurship, an endowed chair that is now located permanently in the Dyson School.

TuneTap wins Shark Tank competition
Cornell students pitched their startup plans to venture capitalists for a chance to win a $1500 prize in the second annual Johnson Shark Tank competition, held at Duffield Hall Feb. 4.

Events

Cornell Entrepreneur Network/Cornell Silicon Valley (CEN/CSV) Events

3/5/14 - CEN Arizona presents the Chief Executive Officer of PetSmart Inc., David K. Lenhardt ’91, 6:00pm - 9:00pm

3/8/14 - CEN/CSV: Cornell Reception at SXSW Interactive in Austin, 6:00pm - 8:00pm
For event details and to register, visit the CEN website at http://www.cen.cornell.edu/

Other Entrepreneurial Events

2/20/14: Android Workshop with VSCO, 6:00pm - 7:00pm

2/24/14: Future Energy Pitching Session at the ARPA-E Energy Innovation Summit, 5:30pm - 7:30pm

For up-to-date information on entrepreneurial events, visit the eship web site at http://entrepreneurship.cornell.edu/events/future

Submission Guidelines and Deadlines

You may send your items of interest to Kathy Hovis (kah53@cornell.edu) by the 15th of the month. E@C will select items to be published.

Entrepreneurship@Cornell